REFUGEES HAVE RIGHTS!

JAPAN MUST UPHOLD
THE PRINCIPLE OF NON-REFOULEMENT!

JAPAN MUST CHOOSE: STAND WITH HUMAN RIGHTS

OR

BOW TO A CORRUPT DICTATORSHIP

Jamal Saberi is a political activist opposed to the current Islamic regime in Iran. After refugee status was rejected for Saberi by the Japanese government, he was arrested, and now he faces deportation to Iran, a move that will no doubt lead to Saberi's arrest by the Islamic regime. In detention, Saberi will face torture and possibly death.

JAPAN'S ACTION ON THE SABERI CASE WILL SET THE TONE FOR THE IRANIAN REFUGEE SITUATION WORLDWIDE:

If we stop Japan, no other country will dare to try this again.

If we do not stop Japan, other countries (like Turkey) will follow their lead.
